

This is in regards to the wi No Call list. I support the current version of the wi No Call List. It is pleasure to return home after a long days work and not have to answer the telephone for services I did not solicit or promotions that I am not interested in. If I choose to have a service rendered I will contact the company of my choice. I do not appreciate tele-marketers calling my home and disrupting the time I have set aside for my family.